The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7,15,16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Weidel 4,966,430.

Weidel shows in figure 3 a substrate 4/11(middle layer 4), a lens 13 (lower 13 in upper layer 4), a planarization layer 4 (upper layer 4), a top layer on which laser 7' is mounted, and wherein the laser light is transmitted through "substrate" middle layer 4. Layers 4 may be separated or contact one another or be joined by an adhesive (column 4). Alternatively the substrate may be considered 1 wherein there are optical guides 5 for transmitted light such as coming from lasers 7' and through planarized lens' 13.

Claim 1 structure is anticipated or obvious over Weidel.

Art Unit: 2815

Claims 2-7 are rejected as Weidel shows layer 3 comprising electrode and insulation layers for circuitry and interconnects. Obviously the laser 7' needs to be connected to circuitry and electrodes for control and voltage supply. The label "sealing ring" would not structurally distinguish over the means connecting upper layer 1 to upper layer 3. Layer 1 can be silicon (column 2). Claims 15 and 16 are rejected because plugs for connecting wiring layers to device contact pads are routinely used in the industry and would have been obvious for connecting the lasers and circuitry chips to wirings in layer 3.

Claims 1-7, 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Weidel in view of Johnson WO 01/01497.

Johnson suggests "plugs" connecting wiring to contact pads of sealed lasers and also shows contact pads 19,20 outside a sealing ring. It would have been obvious to have practiced similar plug connections in Weidel to make secure contacts and effective sealing barrier, and also to enable contact outside the sealing ring. Claims 1-7, 15 and 16 are obvious structure.
